

David Friedrich Wanderer above the Sea of Fog 1817

1. a) Describe one way in which the image above depicts an ideal of the Romantic movement.

1 Point

Examples that earn this point may include the following:

- Importance of Nature and the natural world
- Emergence of Nationalism
- Emotion over Reason
- Importance of the Individual

- b) Using the image above or another image, written work or piece of music, describe one other ideal of the Romantic movement.

1 Point

Examples that earn this point may include the following:

- Ideas of Rousseau such as finding truth through examination of the inner self, The Social Contract, Emile.
- Immanuel Kant Critique of Pure Reason
- Beethoven
- Chopin
- Lord Byron (Greek War for Independence)
- This will be quite extensive, lots of possibilities...

- c) Describe one way in which the image above is a reaction to the ideals of the Enlightenment.

1 Point

Examples that earn this point may include the following:

- Religious revivals like Methodism led by John Wesley
- Revolutions based on the emotional power of nationalism and mass politics.
- Negative reaction to technology/ industrialization.