

Italian Renaissance

What were the driving forces behind the Renaissance and how did they establish the Renaissance as a turning point?

Identify and explain how the role of the individual in society changed during the Renaissance period.

Explain how Individualism and Humanism were reflected in the artwork of the Italian Renaissance.

Northern Renaissance

Compare and Contrast the Italian Renaissance and the Northern Renaissance in terms of how religion influenced their cultural movements.

Printing Press

How does the introduction of moveable type print change Europe intellectually and religiously?

New Monarchies

How did the new Monarchies of Europe use religion to assert power and control?

How did Individualism influence the economic advancements of Europe during the Renaissance?

The Age of Exploration

Identify and explain the political, economic and religious motives behind European Exploration.

What were some of the lasting consequences of the Age of Exploration on both American and European societies?

The Columbian Exchange

Identify and explain the positive impacts that the Columbian Exchange had on the Americas and Europe.

Identify and explain the negative impacts that the Columbian Exchange had on the Americas and Europe.

The Slave Trade

Explain how the Slave Trade was a reflection of the theories of Machiavelli.

The Commercial Revolution

How did the Age of Exploration lead directly to the Commercial Revolution?

Explain how the Agricultural Revolution was paving the way towards the Industrial Revolution.